

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

They are not allowing enough time for the facts to be straitened out after this broadcast, so it appears that this is a politically motivated broadcast that in fact may eventually prove to be illegal.

Thank you.